

- Concord Steel is a leading processor and distributor of Max 33 steel plate in North America. In addition to our large selection of ready to ship plate ranging in size from ½” to 9”, Concord Steel offers a complete line of processing capabilities to produce anything from simple shapes to complex sub-assemblies.
- Known as “The Counterweight People”, Concord Steel is the nation’s largest counterweight (ballast) producer. Our steel counterweights can be found in a variety of equipment covering a wide spectrum of areas including:

Construction equipment

Material Handling Equipment

Scaffolding Equipment

Elevators

Theatrical Rigging Equipment

Oil & Gas Exploration Equipment

- Core Competencies:
 1. Burning –The base of our operation, Concord Steel is able to meet strict specifications and standards set forth by our customers. Burning tolerances as close as 1/16”. Our burning capabilities are supported by contemporary burning equipment including:
 - (20) CNC Oxy fuel multi torch burning machines.
 - (2) CNC plasma tables.
 2. Machining / Welding / Value Added – Supported by CNC machining centers, Certified Welders, and planer mills, Concord Steel is able to provide its customers with the value added services that are required by many modern day OEMs.
 3. Painting – State of the art paint booths coupled with blasting machines allow Concord Steel to provide customers parts that are ready to use when they are received.
 4. Distribution of material – Concord has (2) strategically located facilities that allow us to ship economically and just in time. Branch locations:
 - Warren, OH.
 - Chicago Heights, IL.
 5. Customer Service – The backbone of Concord Steel, our experienced sales staff is available from start to finish on any project. From Request for Quote to Bill of lading, our customer service reps are trained to ensure 100 % satisfaction.
- Established in 1928, Concord Steel offers over 80 years of experience to help our customers succeed by using the most cost effective measures possible. Our success is measured by our customer’s success.
- Visit us on the web at www.concordstl.com